

JPI CH Dissemination Event Agenda

26, 27 November 2025

Château de Versailles, France & Online

Day One

08:30 Welcome & Registration

09:00 Introduction

- Laurent Salomé, director of Musée national des châteaux de Versailles et de Trianon
- Monica Brinzei, project officer for Social Sciences and Humanities, French Ministry of Research representatives
- Pascal Liévaux, head of Research and Science Policy Department, French Ministry of Culture

09:30 The JPI CH Achievements

10:00 Session 1 Co-creating Heritage: Community Engagement, Identity, and Sustainable Futures

This session focuses on the pivotal role of communities in defining, interpreting, and sustaining their heritage. Discussions will explore participatory and co-creative methodologies, the connections between heritage and individual/collective identity, and how heritage can foster social cohesion and contribute to sustainable local and regional development.

Roundtable:

- OLIVE4ALL, represented by Julie Deramond (University of Avignon)
- CULTIVATE, represented by Rosalind Bryce (University of the Highlands and Islands)
- RCL: ICH, represented by Laura Hodsdon (Falmouth University)

Dialogue:

- IRIS, represented by Anna Maria Stagno (University of Genoa)
- CUMET, represented by Maia Ghattas (Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne University)

Moderators: two members of the JPI CH Scientific and Advisory Board, Alexandra Bitusikova (Matej Bel University) & Sophie Elpers (Meertens Institute & University of Antwerp).

11:15 Coffee Break

11:45 Session 2 Digital Innovations & New Methodologies in Heritage Research & Protection

This session explores how cutting-edge digital technologies (AI, virtual/augmented reality, advanced imaging, data analytics) and novel research methodologies are transforming the documentation, analysis, interpretation, protection, and experience of cultural heritage.

Roundtable:

- SHIELD, represented by Dante Abate (Eratosthenes Centre of Excellence)
- PHE, represented by Brian FG Katz (CNRS) & Damian Murphy (University of York)
- PICCH, represented by Viola Lorella (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam)
- EHEM, represented by Carlos Andújar Gran (Polytechnic University of Catalonia)

Moderator: Mario E. Santana Quintero (Carleton University), member of the JPI CH Scientific and Advisory Board, with the help of Mentimeter.

12:45 Lunch Break

14:30 Session 3 Reinterpreting Pasts, Shaping Futures: Narratives, Ethics, & Social Justice in Heritage

This session confronts the complexities of heritage interpretation, particularly concerning marginalized, contested, or difficult histories. It explores decolonizing approaches, ethical considerations in curation and representation, the politics of narrative construction, and the potential of heritage to contribute to social justice and more inclusive societal understanding.

Keynote presentation:

- PERCOL, represented by Glyn Davis (University of St Andrews)

Dialogue:

- MaLLHOC, represented by Anthony Scott (Science Museum)
- DeCoSEAS, represented by Joséphine Simonnot (CNRS)
- HerinDep, represented by Ivan Murin (Matej Bel University)

Moderator: Marija Drémaitė (Vilnius University), member of the JPI CH Scientific and Advisory Board.

15:30 Closing Remarks

Pierre-Emmanuel Lecerf, General Administrator of the Château de Versailles

15:45 Cultural Visits

18:00 Cocktail Reception

Day Two

08:30 Welcome & Registration

09:00 Session 4 Heritage Under Pressure: Environmental Change, Risk, and Material Resilience

This session addresses the multifaceted pressures on cultural heritage, including climate change, environmental degradation, conflict, and decay. This roundtable will examine innovative approaches to risk assessment, material science, conservation, and strategic interventions to enhance the resilience and safeguarding of heritage assets.

Keynote presentation:

- NuSPACES, represented by Egle Rindzeviciute (Kingston University)

Dialogue:

- DECOPE, represented by Josephine M. Rasmussen (Arkivet Peace and Human Rights Center)
- WOODPDLAKE, represented by Manuela Romagnoli (University of Tuscia)
- PROCRAFT, represented by Elodie Guilminot (Laboratoire Arc'Antique)
- CRYSTINART, represented by Noushine Shahidzadeh (University of Amsterdam)
- StAr, represented by Gilles Chaumat (CEA)

Moderators: two members of the JPI CH Scientific and Advisory Board, Johanna Leissner (Fraunhofer) & Annelie Sjölander Lindqvist (University of Gothenburg).

10:30 Session 5 Heritage in Context: Landscapes, Integrated Management, & Socio-Economic Dimensions

This session examines how tangible and intangible heritage is embedded within, and interacts with, broader urban and rural landscapes. This roundtable will discuss strategies for integrating heritage into planning and development, holistic management approaches, and the socio-economic dimensions of heritage, including its role in tourism, local economies, and cultural policy.

Dialogue:

- F-ATLAS, represented by Stefano Bertocci (University of Florence)
- CURBATHERI, represented by Torgrim Sneve Guttormsen (Norwegian Institute for Cultural Heritage Research)

- ArchHeritage, represented by Richard Fraser (UiT The Arctic University of Norway)

Moderator: Håkon Glørstad (Museum of Cultural History, University of Oslo), member of the JPI CH Scientific and Advisory Board.

11:15 Coffee Break

11:45 Interactive plenary on impact

Alison Heritage, ICCROM

12:10 Conclusion: future opportunities through the European Partnership for Resilient Cultural Heritage

Scan the QR code to visit our website the Heritage Research Hub

Created and managed by the JPI CH, the Hub is a platform on and for the cultural heritage research community.

<https://www.heritageresearch-hub.eu>

